

DFK Canada Raises $113,500 to Support Communities in Fort McMurray

In response to the devastating wildfires which ravaged through the city of Fort McMurray and surrounding areas during early May, the partners and staff of the independent firms of DFK Canada have banded together to raise $113,500 which has been donated to the Red Cross to support local families and communities affected by this tragedy. The federal government and the province of Alberta will match these Red Cross donations. Donations to the Red Cross can be made online through the Red Cross website.

The following supporting firms have recognized the need for all Canadians to come together and offer support to those displaced by the Fort McMurray disaster and who continue to experience unimaginable hardship.

